Cookies Policy

Last updated: October 08, 2018

liftbeam.com ("us", "we", or "our") uses cookies on the liftbeam.com website (the "Service"). By using the Service, you consent to the use of cookies.

Our Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, how we use cookies your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

What are cookies

Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the Service or a third-party to recognize you and make your next visit easier and the Service more useful to you.

Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies. Persistent cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when you go offline, while session cookies are deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

How liftbeam.com uses cookies

When you use and access the Service, we may place a number of cookies files in your web browser.

We use cookies for the following purposes:

> To enable certain functions of the Service
> We use both session and persistent cookies on the Service and we use different types of cookies to run the Service:

We use Session Cookies to store information while processing our form. This information is mainly values of forms between post back actions on the site. This cookie is deleted after the session is closed.

We use Persistent Cookies to remember information you enter so you do not have to retype it in. The persistent Cookie requires checking a checkbox for it to store information. Unchecking this box and running a report will remove the stored information. This information is not distributed to any third parties and is only used to populate some fields that you would normally be required to enter.

What are your choices regarding cookies

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser.

Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer, you may not be able to store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly.
